Matt Putrich has been in the banking industry for over 10 years, starting his career after earning his finance degree from Western Illinois University. He joined UMB Bank in 2022 as a Commercial Relationship Manager. In this role, Matt is responsible for cultivating new commercial relationships and the expansion/retention of existing relationships. Throughout Matt's career he has worked in various divisions of banking, but his focus has remained in the commercial line of business. Also, Matt has expertise in non-credit products such as treasury management and commercial card. Matt collaborates with commercial clients to better understand their business and financial needs, while asking specific questions to analyze the business in order to qualify clients for bank products and services. His passion is to be a trusted financial partner companies can count on to deliver new ideas, solutions, and advice that is in their best long-term interest.

In addition to his professional experience, Matt enjoys spending time with his family and 1 year old son, Cooper. Other outside interests include travel, basketball, and being outdoors near any body of water.
