We believe your real priorities lie beyond your net worth. This belief guides our approach in building our relationship with you. We understand you, not just your money, so we can better personalize solutions to meet your unique goals.

As a private banker, Kenny is responsible for creating customized banking solutions for high-net-worth clients. He provides the necessary experience to navigate each client's individual credit, deposit, liquidity and wealth management needs while facilitating introductions to additional UMB partners to deliver a tailored financial plan.

With two decades of experience in the financial services industry, Kenny is a transplant from Texas. Prior to UMB, he was employed by Wells Fargo in Dallas as a vice president and private banker.

Kenny is a graduate of Pepperdine University in Malibu, California, where he earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration.

He enjoys giving back to his community through volunteer efforts at Habitat for Humanity, the St. Louis Food Bank, and Cedars Camps. He also loves to spend time with his five daughters and coach high school baseball and soccer.
